WOMANS CLUB ENTERTAIN ROYALLY

The Fourth Annual Banquet Tuesday Evening A Great Success

The Rhineland Woman's Club held their fourth annual banquet on last Tuesday evening. It is a club custom that once a year the members of the club shall call in their husbands and gentleman friends, regale them with choice viands, entertain them with a high class musical program and most important of all, lay down a few rules of procedure to help keep them in the narrow way that is not always followed successfully by mere man.

Last Tuesday's banquet night was in point of attendance, brilliancy of the program and gustatory delights of the menu one of the most successful the club has ever held. Every event of the evening passed off in a manner to reflect highest credit on the members of the club and those taking part in the program.

Mrs. D. J. Cole, President of the Club, made the address of greeting and welcome, presided as toastmistress and gracefully introduced the speakers of the evening.

The toastmistress spoke of the coming woman and briefly traced the steps that has lifted the sex to the present high plane of thought and action. Quoting St. Paul's rather pungent remarks on the advisability of women keeping silent, the speaker was certain, that could the apostolic bachelor walk again on earth and see the progress woman had made in science, art, literature and the things that go to make the up lift of mankind, he would change his rather mandatory injunction for them to keep quiet. Further, the speaker brought out that the stronger and more intellectual the mother, the stronger and more intellectual the son—womanly women make manly men and the only way that man can make himself equal to the other sex is by discarding sin.

In answer to the toast, "Rhineland, Its Past and Future" Mrs. Richards reviewed the town's past, its early struggles and its present firm attitude towards the best in city making, in its public buildings, streets and private enterprises.

To Mrs. Reardon was given the rather delicate mission of handling the toast "The Ideal Husband." The tactful manner in which the subject was gone through with by the speaker did well for her discreet diplomacy. Mrs. Reardon closed her remarks with the poem, "A Woman's Heart Cannot be Bought."

"The Hobbie Skirts," Mrs. Shepard's toast brought out all the pica-dillos of the eternal feminine together with a few gentle hints to mere man to give up some of his more bedizened infirmities in dress. Mrs. Shepard briefly sketched the passing panorama of fashion as marked by the "hoop" skirt of the 60's, the "Grecian bend" of the 70's, the "hold back" skirt of 75, and the "side back" skirt of the 80's and ended her remarks by condemning the hobbie skirt, the product of nineteenth century. Mrs. Shepard's remarks were highly humorous and reflected great credit on the speaker.

To Mrs. Van Alstyne was given the task of ending the program by responding to the toast "This Fair Land of Ours." The speaker's remarks were of a patriotic character and at the end of the talk when the love of country had been roused in the hearts of the audience, Miss McQueen stepped to the piano, struck a few rousing chords and the audience arose and sang "The Star Spangled Banner" with all the patriotic pathos the song ever brings forth. It made a fitting climax to the banquet part of the program. The menu was interspersed through the program.

Tomato Bouillon	Wafers
Roast Turkey Dressing	Gravy
Mashed Potatoes	Diced Beets

ANCIENT AND MODERN MUSIC OF IRELAND

Miss Kate O'Neill Will Interpret the Beautiful Irish Melody
and Song. A Rare Opportunity for Music Lovers.

Rhineland citizens may well congratulate themselves on the opportunity that will present itself to hear people of her own country than Miss Miss Keath O'Neill of Chicago, who comes here on Dec. 19, under the auspices of the A. O. H. of this city.

No present day singer of Ireland has secured a wider recognition from the people of her own country than Miss O'Neill. Her ability as a singer, comes here on Dec. 19, under the auspices of the A. O. H. of this city.

A woman of genius, culture and highest character, Miss O'Neill possesses that undefinable something that is the attribute of genius, that something that sweeps an audience through the gamut of human emotions—that makes you laugh, cry or shout as she plays on the harp strings of the heart with the song she sings.

Together with her rare ability as an entertainer in Irish song and story but equally entertaining and instructing in her relation of the history and characteristics of the old songs which stir the hearts and are well remembered by those who were born in the Fatherland. Her contrast and analogy between Irish and German songs and singers are very interesting.

Those spending an evening at the Opera House with Miss O'Neill will be repaid fourfold by the witchery of her song and the intense interest of her story.

did, among those making informal remarks, were Mr. W. E. Brown, Mr. D. B. Stevens, Mr. Hemmingway and Rev. Clark.

The musical part of the program opened with a piano duet, Overture, "William Tell" by Mrs. Harrison and Miss McQueen, followed by a vocal solo, "Summer Time" by Miss Elina Brown which were well received.

Mr. LaMotte then gave a violin solo which was up to the high standard of the work usually done by this master of the violin.

The closing number was a Quintette, "Last Rose of Summer" by Miss Alice Schlessmann soprano obbligato, and Messrs. Tompkins, LaSelle, Harrison and Schenke, which received a hearty encore.

The Club flower red carnation, was used in the table decoration, one of which with the menu card, lay at each plate.

The Club banquet is voted by guests and members a delightful affair and every one present will look forward with anticipation to the next.

Following are those in attendance: Messrs. R. J. LaSelle, Tompkins, Schenke, C. H. J. Ball, W. E. Brown, C. P. Crosby, John Clorn, D. B. Stevens, W. Fisher, Claude Shepard, C. H. Donaldson, Dr. Chas. McIndoe, C. H. Hemmingway, R. C. Dayton, S. B. Gary, F. A. Harrison, B. R. Lewis, Rev. Grant Clark, Dr. Richards, J. W. Van Alstyne, M. H. Raymond, W. D. ELKS TO GIVE BOBBIE BLAKE

Professionals Assisted By Best of Local Talent to Stage Play

What will probably score as great a success as anything ever attempted by local talent will be the musical comedy, Bobbie Blake which will be staged in the Opera House Tuesday night, December 13, under the auspices of B. O. E. Elks by W. R. Harvey.

The caste is composed of Rhineland people and under the able musical and stage management of the Harveys the play is fast rounding into shape in all its elaborate features. Some of the best talent in the city has been secured to form caste and chorus and the ensemble makes a perfect dramatic and musical combination.

"Bobbie Blake" is a comedy skit in which the plot is a hair line on which to string a variety of musical gems. As presented the plot is scarcely apparent at all, while the musical features and specialties are each and every one a ten strike.

The scene of the activities of the play is located at Strong Point, Mass. To that place many of the upper ten of Boston make pilgrimages during the summer season and the enjoyable happenings lead up to the climax, where Bobbie Blake, a poor girl receives a fortune, will keep the audience in a happy mood from the rise of the curtain until its fall.

The title role is taken by Miss Alice Schlessmann. Mr. and Mrs. I. Will Foss are personated by Forest Himes and Miss Lillian Foster. Mr. and Mrs. U. Watchem by Boyce Dayton and Miss Isabel Johnson. Mr. Knowit and Mr. Ilt, the wise brace of sharps sent in search of Bobbie Blake are personated by Wm. Schenke and Ronald Reardon. Mr. Will Harvey is the diamond-bedecked clerk of the hotel and Jas. McRae figures as its proprietor.

Among the many rattling musical numbers are, "On the Gay Luneta and Dancon" by the full chorus; "Come, Be My Sunshine, Dearie," Mrs. Mae Liebenstein, Ching A-Ling, Jap chorus. "I'm Afraid of You," Miss Graham, Franklin and Bell Boy and "Jim mle O'Hooley by the Chewing Gum Chorus.

W. H. Mylrea to Speak Before Congregational Young Men's Club.

W. H. Mylrea, former Attorney General of Wausau, will address the Men's Club of the Congregational church at their next supper Monday evening, Dec. 19 in the church parlors. Mr. Mylrea has a splendid reputation as a public speaker. Without doubt, he will have a large audience.

The ladies will serve supper at 6:30.

HALBECK-WANDRY.

Last Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock, A. E. Halbeck and Martha Wandry, both of this city, were united in marriage by court commissioner W. W. Carr at the latter's residence on the south side. The ceremony was witnessed by Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Allen of this city. The couple left the same evening for Wausau to remain a few days. They will then return to Rhineland where they will make their future home. Mr. Halbeck is employed in the paper mill.

RUSHING STAMP SALES.

Each city is vying with every other to do full justice to its sales of the Red Cross seals. In this connection, Portage, Racine and Watertown have inaugurated a novel method of increasing the sales. Admission to seal parties, school entertainments etc., is based upon so many seals instead of cash.

Mrs. John McElrone of this city, returned home Wednesday evening from a two weeks visit with relatives and friends at Minneapolis and Winona.

Mrs. E. S. Darling, daughter of I. Duffalo, whose critical illness called her here, returns home today.

Chester and Jerry Bently returned to Malvern Thursday morning after a few days visit in the city.

TREMONT HOUSE ROBBED THURSDAY

Prompt Work by O'Brien and O'Malley Land Offender in Cell

Gas Gustafson, the proprietor of the Tremont Hotel was robbed of his watch Thursday morning by a young man who had registered there from Goodman, Wis., the night before. Mr. Gustafson's prompt notification of Officer James O'Malley led to his arrest at the Soo depot before he had time to leave town.

On Wednesday evening the prisoner Jule Dallas and a companion, Chas. O'reency asked for lodging at the Tremont and retired at about 3:30, both sleeping in the same room.

Mr. Gustafson retired at about ten o'clock leaving his watch on the dresser at his bedside and not locking the door as is his usual custom. Awakening about 3:30 and reaching for his watch he found it gone and immediately went to the room of the two guests of the night before. He found O'reency sleeping and Dallas gone from the hotel.

Gustafson immediately went to the Northwestern depot and notified Officer James O'Malley, thinking that Dallas would try and make his getaway on the train then due on the above road. O'Malley promptly notified Officer Jack O'Brien who apprehended Dallas a little later at the Soo depot where he was watching for a chance out of town on a Soo freight. Dallas dropped the watch in the snow but O'Brien made him hunt it out of the drift and accompany him to police court where he pled guilty and was bound over by Judge Walker under bond of $300.

The prisoner is a young man apparently only about seventeen and if so will hardly get a pen sentence.

PUTS OUT CATALOGUE

J. Segerstrom Throws Down the Glove to the Mail Order Houses.

The determined efforts of the big mail order houses to capture local trade and take money away from home has encouraged our local jeweler J. Segerstrom to issue an elaborate catalogue of his own, which shows by actual comparison the advantage of doing all your jewelry business at home. It is as handsome a book as we have seen and is a direct challenge to mail order competition to keep hands off, as far as this section is concerned. It adds the assurance of his personal guarantee with everything sold and shows to what surprising extent he is able to meet requirements. Mr. Segerstrom tells us, his catalogue will not be distributed among the residents of Rhineland, only to the patrons living out side of our city.

BOY SCOUTS ELECT OFFICERS

At the meeting of the local council of Boy Scouts, Wednesday evening, the following officers were elected:

J. H. Morgan, President.
W. C. Orr, Vice-President.
C. P. Crosby, Secretary.

L. A. Leadbetter, Treasurer.
The executive committee will consist of the above officers and Matt Stapleton, John Svedberg, A. W. Brown, Henry Koepke and Paul Browne. The committee was authorized to recommend to the headquarters at New York a man to act as Scout Commissioner.

TURN SUDDENLY—TAKE TUMBLE

While driving south on Arbutus St. late yesterday morning, Jas. Blackmer and Ed. Witter were treated to a snow bath. The horse wishing to go faster than the occupants cared to ride, turned suddenly and left the street entering the front yard of the Steadman residence. The passengers not being prepared for such a trick on the part of the horse, were dropped rather roughly into the middle of the street. However, neither horse cutter nor men were any the worse for wear.

A new flame arc lamp is being installed over the entrance to the Bijou theatre. The lamp gives about six times the light of an ordinary arc lamp and is adjustable to from 2000 to 5000 candle power.

SUGGESTIONS TO SHIPPERS OF CHRISTMAS PACKAGES.

1st. Ship your package early—by the 15th of December if possible. The express company will give you a small label to paste on the package reading "Do not open until Christmas." This will give opportunity for the package to reach its destination before Christmas and give the additional pleasure to the recipient of the gift of having it on Christmas morning.

2nd. Use wooden boxes for packing especially for glass and other fragile articles, which should be well protected. It may cost a few cents more, but the danger of damage will be very much reduced, and you should do your part to make the transportation of your gift safe.

3rd. Write the address in full—state, county, city, street and number—on the box or package, with ink or crayon. Tags are frequently torn off and lost.

4th. If you want to prepay the charges, write the word "Paid" in large, plain letters on the package.

5th. Insist upon a receipt and see that the amount paid and the value is marked on the receipt and on the package.

6th. Write your own address in full somewhere on the package, following the prefix "From....."

7th. Enclose a card in each box or package reading:

From

To

(Your address.)

(Consignee's address.)

This in order that, should the outer markings be destroyed, the inner mark will insure prompt forwarding and delivery.

8th. If not convenient to ship wooden boxes, use strong wrapping paper (not newspapers) and tie with strong cord.

9th. If package contains anything of perishable nature, write the word "Perishable" in large plain letters on the box or package, which will call for special attention and delivery.

If you will observe these suggestions, you will greatly assist in the prompt delivery of your gift in good condition.

Heart Trouble from Childhood

"I suffered with my heart from girlhood; could not sleep on left side. Eleven bottles of Dr. Miller's Heart Remedy removed all these troubles and brought complete recovery." MRS. H. C. CRUSE, San Francisco, Calif.

The life of the body is the blood. It runs on and on, carrying nourishment and gathering up impurities as long as life lasts—the heart makes it go. When the heart is weak it cannot do this, and dizzy spells, palpitation, short breath, indicate that it is doing its work imperfectly.

Dr. Miller's Heart Remedy strengthens the heart, nerves and muscles, and restores normal action to the heart.

The first bottle will benefit; if not, your druggist will return your money.

The Chicago Record-Herald, an independent republican newspaper, had a humorous editorial the other day in which it showed how the "lame ducks" or "repudiated stand patters" are rushing to Washington to get prominent appointments from the President. A FOREGONE CONCLUSION

Vindicating Secretary of the Interior Ballinger upon all the charges brought against him and condemning his accusers as having been inspired by a deep feeling of animosity built upon a supposed difference in policy respecting conservation. Secretary Ballinger was exonerated by a partisan committee. The Democrats and one Republican last summer made a report saying Ballinger was guilty.

MYRA DIETZ CASE DROPPED.

The case against Miss Myra Dietz will be dropped. This was the announcement made by the prosecutor of Sawyer county, and has caused a big sensation. After Miss Dietz was shot by one of the Sheriff's deputies, a warrant was issued in which she was charged with shooting at an officer, who attempted to serve some papers at the Dietz home a number of years ago. When the warrant was served, Miss Dietz declared she had never fired a gun in her life. Now Attorney Lamoreaux, for the prosecution confirms her statement and therefore there can be no case against her.

Miss Dietz seems to have been the victim of a monstrous injustice—dangerously shot, brutally handcuffed, confined in a hospital for weeks and still suffering from a painful wound. While in serious condition in the hospital, she was subjected to the humiliation of being guarded and closely watched with no privacy whatever and now the prosecution has discovered there is no case. Sawyer county seems to be up against it. Developments are expected and perhaps a big damage suit.

JUDGE REID ON DIETZ CASE.

A remarkably sensational document in the form of a petition, was filed by John Dietz's attorney, before Judge Wickham, Tuesday morning. It denounced Judges Wickham and Parish for acts of prejudice and injustice in violently strong language and included names of other judges and asked for a change of venue. The District Attorney claimed that such language against circuit court judges was contempt of court but Judge Wickham announced he would take no action in the matter. He ruled that the case must be tried at Hayward and that Judge Reid of Wausau would be called in next Monday to hear it.

SHERIFF PETERSON DIES

Mr. J. Peterson ex-sheriff of Hayward county, died Monday night, at a hospital at Ashland. He was one of the first sheriffs, who attempted to arrest Dietz, when his first trouble occurred with the lumber company. He failed in his undertaking and in consequence was forced to resign his office, was imprisoned in jail 90 days and fined $1000. Had he lived he would have been an important witness in the Dietz case.

The following is evidence that Senator LaFollette is in good condition to continue his fight for the people in the U. S. Senate:

Special to the Record-Herald: Washington, Dec. 6.—Senator LaFollette, militant, irrepressible and fear-nothing insurgent from the Badger State, returned to Washington this morning comparatively fresh from the operating-room of a hospital. For years the Wisconsin senator has had to combat personal physical illness as well as public evils, and at times his hard work in the Senate has sent him to his bed. Every body knows what a fighter he has been under all circumstances.

At the close of the brief session of the Senate this morning groups of senators gathered in the center aisle and the space in front of the desks. Regulars and insurgents were in close contact. Senator Aldrich was standing near Senator LaFollette.

"Now that I am over my internal troubles I am able to do things," said Mr. LaFollette. "I have been sluggish for years." Senator Aldrich threw up his hands and cried: "Good Lord!"

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE.

We may now expect the Tory press of Wisconsin to yell itself hoarse because Senator LaFollette suggests to President Taft that supreme court judges be selected from among lawyers who have not too close corporation affiliations. Let 'em roar. So conservative a paper as The New York Evening Post protested against the selection of Senator Root because of his corporation record. On the other hand, there was not a progressive throughout the whole length and breadth of the country that did not heartily commend the appointment of Gov. Hughes. There is a difference.—Milwaukee Journal.

PRESIDENT RELENTS—WELL!

We hear much about Senator LaFollette's discourtesy in not accepting an invitation from President Taft to call at the White House.

President Taft has resorted to all the methods used by the ward politician to belittle Senator LaFollette. He ignored his recommendations for appointment; he sent "Sunny Jim" to the so-called Taft convention at Milwaukee "A Special Interest get up" to tell them that Senator LaFollette was not acceptable to him. Why should Senator LaFollette meet the President in conference if he does not think it advisable?

When Queen Victoria asked the great prime minister William E. Gladstone, to call after she had used her position to attempt to defeat him for office and failed, he refused the invitation.

It is Senator LaFollette's right to accept or reject the invitation as he wishes.

The LaFollette Letter. The letter which the senator wrote to the President was as follows: Dec. 5, 1910.

Dear Mr. President: I have a letter from your secretary, Mr. Norton, stating that you would like to discuss with me certain judicial appointments.

The one suggestion I would offer is that, in view of present conditions, only such men should be selected as will be certain to construe the constitution and the law with due regard to the interest of the people eliminating from consideration those whose legislative or judicial record show them biased toward special interests or whose legal connections would tend to prejudice their minds in favor of such interests.

I may properly add that I shall support your administration whenever I can do so consistently and I shall oppose your recommendations only when I find it necessary so to do in accordance with my convictions of public duty. Respectfully yours, ROBERT M. LA FOLLETTE.

MUST PAY PENALTY

Christmas Gift Senders Must Use Sufficient Postage.

The first swelling of the mails that will amount to a deluge at Christmas time, is now being felt at the post-offices due to foreign mail-matter. Packages must be mailed now in order to reach distant parts of the world by Christmas.

Many folks who intend nothing but good cheer in sending parcels are going to bring frowns to the faces of distant loved ones, however, by failing to put on enough postage. Packages have already come in on which postage at 2 cents per ounce has been placed, and in every place but Great Britain and Germany, this will require the recipient to pay a penalty. The rate of foreign mail matter, excepting that bound for England and on direct vessels to Germany, is 5 cents for the first ounce or fraction thereof, and 3 cents for each additional ounce. A penalty of twice the deficiency in postage is required from the addressee when insufficient postage is affixed.

MORE THAN LAST YEAR

Over Four Thousand Deer Shipped in the Season Just Ended.

The total number of deer killed and shipped by hunters in Wisconsin since Nov. 10, when the season opened, was 4,137, according to the count of coupons received up to today in the office of Game Warden G. W. Rickman.

This, however, is not the final total as carcasses may be shipped until midnight tonight, and it is probable that 200 more coupons will yet come in. Last year the final total was 3,985.

Coupons received at the game warden's department are only for deer shipped. Deer killed by settlers and residents and not shipped are not reckoned, as no coupon is required. This number is probably equal to that of the carcasses shipped.

Warden Rickman reports twenty-one convictions for violations of the game laws during the week ending today, with resulting fines of $455. costs $89.82, total $544.82. Among the offenses are: Hunting without license, illegal trapping, hunting with dog, serving venison, failure to cancel coupons, net fishing in Lake Michigan, hunting with ferret, snaring protected game and shooting prairie chickens.

Don't forget the Friscilla sale of Christmas articles on Saturday, Dec. 10, at the Congregational church.

JUDGE WALKER DISPENSES JUSTICE

Hay, Fire Water and Deer
Hunting Make Medley at Police Court

Police court was in session Tuesday with Municipal Judge Walker on the bench and a number of cases were up for hearing. Jim Catfish, a noble red man, of near Minocqua, found his way into court for the alleged double selling of hay to Frank L. Rogers of the above town. Mr. Rogers complained that Catfish had disposed of the hay previously to another party and that he was short some $48 worth of hay by reason of the defalcation. The case was continued until next Tuesday at Catfish's request.

The case of Antone Duffy, who was arrested for striking Henry Gustafson with an ax at a camp near Malvern was continued until next Thursday. The row was occasioned by Gustafson coming in drunk and abusing Duffy while the latter was greasing his shoes. When Duffy took a beligerent attitude, Gustafson started to run and Duffy struck him in the back with an ax.

E. W. Behlke, Eric Spar and the three Kucera boys were arrested for violation of the law of venery, being charged with hunting deer with dogs. The case resulted in the conviction of Antone Kucera and the dismissal of the others.

ASQUITH MINISTRY UPHELD
The elections now going on in the English government for members to a new parliament must give the Lords little comfort, as the liberals are holding their full strength, and adding new members.

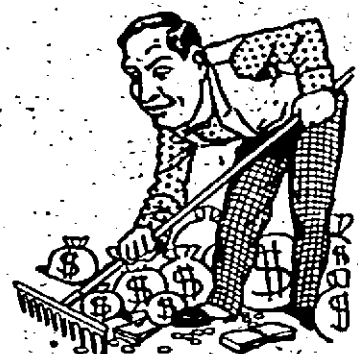

The Asquith ministry is being upheld. The accusations of the conservatives that the policy of the ministry is socialistic in recommending a referendum and recall seems to have little terror for the voters.

The fact is the dilatory tactics of the lords will drive the people to abolish that house if the methods are not changed. The temper of the people is not right for the "privileged classes" to try to stop legislative action in favor of the masses whether in a monarchy or a republic.

MRS. EDDY PASSES AWAY.

The great founder and leader of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, is dead, but many of the doctrines she promulgated will live whether under the name of Christian Science or some other name. Mrs. Eddy will be mourned by her associates and followers but her co-workers will continue the work which is so thoroughly begun. It is a case of the work living, and thriving long after the death of the founder. Mrs. Eddy died last Saturday night at her home in the suburbs of Boston of pneumonia.

CHANGE IN WESTERN EXPRESS.
The Western Express has changed hands. Messrs. Ashton and Sawtell have charge of it and headquarters will be in the back of the Sawtell store on Davenport Street. This location will give much better satisfaction to the general public. In cities of this size the demand is for downtown express accommodations.

A BARGAIN FOR YOU.

We offer for sale the double dwelling at No. 220-222 Stevens St. opposite the City Hall. The rent from this building will pay for it in a few years. Stevens Street is coming to the front and is going to be one of the best business streets in the city. Values are bound to increase. See us at once for price and terms.

The express business is not new to Mr. Ashton; the public will now get good service. H. E. Knapp is the transfer work of the office and will give that first class attention. January first the Western Express takes over the Wisconsin Central business which is now under another express company. The Soo business is rapidly growing.

LALLY WITH MARQUETTE.

The following is of interest to this city, as it brings into athletic prominence a well known Rhinelander boy Milwaukee, Wis. — Lally of Rhinelander is one of the finds of the year at Marquette University, in an athletic way, and promises to be an important member of the basketball team which Marquette is planning to send on a tour of the entire north-west, including Minnesota, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan, as well as against every college and academy in Wisconsin.

MINOCQUA.

Earl Schilling left for Milwaukee Saturday, to enter Marquette college. Mrs. Gus Nolan has returned from a weeks visit with friends at Merrill and Wausau.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mann left for Milwaukee, Wednesday.

Earl Cannon was taken to the Oshkosh hospital Monday morning. He has been ill and the local doctors think an operation for appendicitis necessary. Miss Kennedy accompanied him.

A baby arrived at the home of Geo. Nicola, Wednesday last.

Mrs. C. B. Carman was here Tuesday. She was on her way to Tomahawk where they will live for the remainder of the winter.

Miss Frances Small is substitute first grade teacher during Miss Kennedy's absence.

O. A. Dorwin was in Rhinelander Tuesday.

Mrs. Jas. Timlin of Arbor Vitae visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kepper, the first of the week.

Rev. Fr. Bolger of St. Patrick, Mo., left Friday for his home after a weeks visit with his brothers and sisters here.

Bloodthirsty "Sportsman."

Sir Victor Brooks in 1886 laid himself out to fire exactly 1,000 cartridges at the bunnies. This feat he accomplished in the day's shooting. Bring one-half of the day from his right, and during the other half from his left shoulder, and causing no fewer than 740 members of the rabbit race to bite the dust.

Some Lovers of Fat Men.

They say that nobody loves a fat man. Well, I am not so sure about it. I once knew a very fat old gentleman who became a missionary and went to Africa to convert the heathen. He never came back. I dare say the cannibals love the fat ones best.—Exchange.

Too True.

A Sunday school teacher, after reading the story of Ananias and Sapphira to the juvenile class, asked: "Now, children, why doesn't the Lord strike everybody dead who tells a lie?" "Cause," answered a bright little fellow, "there wouldn't be anybody left, hardly."

Degrees of Goodness.

"Don't you think you have a good mamma, to spread such a nice, big slice of bread with jam for you?" asked the visitor. "Oh, yes," replied little Lola, "but my grandma is gooder; she lets me spread the jam myself."

Keep Smiling.

Be an optimist, and if you run against a brick wall in the dark just imagine it's Italian marble, which was specially reserved for you.

Poor Business.

"How foolish to settle a million on a duke." "When a girl could marry some nice American man and make him happy by handing him a ten-dollar bill every morning."

WOMAN NEXT ON COURSE

Comes Highly Recommended — All Should Hear Her

Mrs. Bertha Kunz-Baker will appear on the Entertainment Course at the Armory, Wednesday evening, Dec. 14. Mrs. Baker is a woman of national reputation as a reader and entertainer and was chosen by the Entertainment Association because they considered her a star attraction. You should hear Mrs. Baker for no better can be had at any price in her line of work. This is the second biggest number on the course this winter.

Why not give the boys and girls a chance to attend the Entertainment Course? No better entertainment or educational advantage can be offered them.

Read the following comments on Mrs. Baker's work.

During more than twenty years' experience in educational work, it has been my good fortune to hear those who have been and are considered the great readers of their day. Mrs. Bertha Kunz Baker, I unhesitatingly pronounce the greatest of all. —Dr. G. R. Benton, President, Miami University, Oxford.

The moods of reverence and pure compassion in which "Parasol" is received, were admirably reproduced in Mrs. Baker's voice, which has a remarkable richness and softness, when Mrs. Baker had finished, the audience left the theater uplifted with that mighty religious awe which a complete presentation of the work leaves. —Chicago Record-Herald.

Mrs. Bertha K. Baker's rendering of "Cyrano de Bergerac" was beyond question one of the most artistic presentations ever heard in this city. Mrs. Baker is an artist in the fullest and highest sense, who lives the characters she so vividly portrays. As soon as it was learned that Mrs. Baker could spend part of tomorrow in this city, two additional readings were arranged. —San Antonio Express.

The reading given by Mrs. Kunz-Baker, Wednesday evening, Dec. 14, will be "The Blue Bird."

CORRECTS COLONEL SMITH

Colonel Nicholas Smith in his "Facts and Curious of Civil War History" in the Wisconsin of Dec. 1, slightly mixes his data in writing of the battle of Phillipi, West Va., according to Mr. D. Kirk of this city. Mr. Kirk is a survivor of the 1st Ohio, one of the regiments participating in this rather bloodless encounter.

Col. Smith gives the loss on the Union side as nine killed and two wounded. Mr. Kirk declares the Federals never lost a man. Charging the town at daybreak the Union forces put the confederates to route without loss to either side save where a cannon shot from a Federal gun carried away the limb of a rebel who was soundly sleeping in a neighboring haymow.

The Union troops in this engagement were raw three months men and at the close of the battle celebrated the victory to the extent that it was hard to find sentinels to picket the encampment.

MUST BE TUBERCULIN TESTED

Buyers and Sellers of Cattle Must Observe State Law—Effective First of Month

The attention of all who are interested in the buying and selling of cattle is called to section 1492d, a new state law which becomes effective December 1st:

"From and after December 1, 1910, it shall be unlawful to sell or otherwise transfer any bull, cow or heifer of the bovine family, over six months old, for other than temporary feeding purposes or to be exported from the state or slaughtered, unless the same has within two years prior to such sale or transfer been tuberculin tested by some competent person approved by the live stock sanitary board, and been found to be free from tuberculosis, the same to be shown by the temperature sheets of such tests, one copy of which shall be delivered to the purchaser at the time of sale, and another at the same time shall be sent by mail to the state live stock sanitary board; and no person shall purchase any such animal except as above provided unless the same has been tuberculin tested, and the evidence of such test as provided in this act accompanies the animal, and no person shall at any time, or in any manner apply tuberculin to any animal unless such application be reported to the state live stock board."

Penalty: "Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than ten days nor more than sixty days."

At the Norwegian Lutheran church Saturday evening, Rev. Snamemo, the pastor united in marriage Miss Helga Leonharda Elde and Anton J. Johnson. The ceremony was attended by a small party of friends. For the occasion the church was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, potted plants and evergreens. A reception followed the wedding at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Johnson on the north side.

Both young people have a large number of friends who extend to them best wishes.

The Unlucky Mandrake.
From time immemorial the mandrake has been associated with enchantments, and has ever been believed to be one of the most powerful charms of witches. Mr. Conway in a paper on "Mystic Trees and Flowers," states that "by popular superstitions in some places it is said to be perpetually watched over by Satan, and if it be pulled up at certain holy times and with certain invocations, the evil spirit will appear to do the bidding of the petitioner."
Cleansing the Eye.
Tears have their use, apart from the crying aspect. The eye requires to be kept clear and clean, and tears perform this duty. A striking example of this is shown when the eye is hurt. It at once commences to water, and often this natural method of cleansing relieves the pain and removes the cause of the discomfort.
The Ordinary Weight of the Human Heart
The ordinary weight of the human heart is nine and one-half ounces, and in size the organ is equal to the closed fist of the person to whom it belongs.

Surely In Hard Luck.
A good example of the kind of story Mark Twain used to like to weave into his after-dinner speeches was the tale of the drinker who unwillingly put in an application for membership in a temperance society, called the next day on a three years' voyage, on which he kept his pledge in spite of longing and temptation, and returned to resign only to find that his name had been blackballed originally.
Pillows for Insomnia.
Our George III. derived great benefit from the "hop pillow" prescribed for him by Dr. Willis after other sedatives and drugs had failed; and a similar remedy was eminently successful in 1871 with his late majesty King Edward VII--then Prince of Wales--who was suffering from typhoid fever. --London Telegraph.
The Crowning Joy.
"Young man, you ought to marry. A cosy home, blooming children--there is nothing happier in the world. And above all, you have the sweet recollections of the time you were a bachelor." --Fliegende Blaetter.

Expansive Little Water Snake.
Not every creature can swallow another bigger than itself, but there is a little water snake at the aquarium that does this handily. This water snake is a foot and a half long and about as big around as a big lead pencil, say a scant five-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, but it will corner and capture a killed fish an inch and a half long and close to half an inch in diameter and gulp it down whole easily.
Mrs. Nippy Grumbles.
"This is a provoking world," said Mrs. Nippy. "I go down to the stores to buy things that I want, and I can't get a blessed clerk to wait on me--in hot weather, at least. But forty or fifty peddlers a day call me to the door at home and offer to sell me things I don't need at all."
Another Novelty.
It was after the stone-laying ceremony, and a wire was sent to the builder with the news: "Stone laid with great eclat." The builder, smothering an awful oath, muttered: "Another new foreign cement," and flung the massive from him in passionate disgust.

A Poor Weak Woman

As she is termed, will endure bravely and patiently agonies which a strong man would give way under. The fact is women are more patient than they ought to be under such troubles.

Every woman ought to know that she may obtain the most experienced medical advice free of charge and in absolute confidence and privacy by writing to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce has been chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for many years and has had a wider practical experience in the treatment of women's diseases than any other physician in this country. His medicines are world-famous for their astonishing efficacy.

The most perfect remedy ever devised for weak and delicate women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG.

SICK WOMEN WELL.

The many and varied symptoms of woman's peculiar ailments are fully set forth in Plain English in the People's Medical Adviser (1908 pages), a newly revised and up-to-date Edition of which, cloth-bound, will be mailed free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Address as above.

FOUND BOYS' COLONY

Representative of Road Endeavor to Secure Location for Boys' Colony

M. W. Hollister, the traveling agent for the Northwestern road, was in Eagle River yesterday looking for a suitable location on one of the lakes in this vicinity for the founding of a boys' colony. Mr. Hollister states that there are several men in various parts of the south who are planning such a step for the benefit of their boys. They propose to have the boys instructed in woodcraft, boating and swimming and similar accomplishments. Suitable buildings are to be erected, including a well equipped gymnasium, and the grounds are to be laid out for open air sports like base ball and tennis. Should the plan materialize it is expected that it will develop into something similar to the Keweenaw club at Mercer and similar stunts will be performed by the boys, such as the 100-mile "hike" taken by the Keweenaw club when they made Eagle River on their jaunt this summer, and canoe trips of a week or more on the lakes.

The gentlemen interested in this proposition are considering another location in the state of Virginia but the Northwestern road is trying to interest them in Vilas county. It is to be hoped they will succeed and it is also hoped that the business men of Eagle River will make an earnest effort to secure the location of this club.—Vilas Co. News.

THE WEARY WAY.

With a back that aches all day. With rest disturbed at night. Annoying urinary disorders. This is a weary way, indeed.

Doan's Kidney Pills drive weariness away. Are endorsed by Rhinelander citizens. Mrs. M. E. Perkins, 23 Mercer St., Rhinelander, Wis., says: "I take pleasure in confirming the statement I gave for publication in 1907, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. Backache caused me a great deal of suffering and I also had pains through my loins. I sometimes felt dizzy and nervous and mornings I arose feeling all tired out. After taking various medicines without being benefited, I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at Reardon's Drug Store. They gave me immediate relief and I continued their use until restored to good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

TOLL OF NORTH WOODS

Season Just Closed Gives Lower Death Rate Than Last Year. The Superior Telegram gives the number of hunters killed in Wisconsin and North Michigan, during the deer hunting season, which closed Wednesday, at 34, and the seriously injured at 47. This is some less than in previous seasons.

Among the tragedies of the north woods for 1910 which probably will remain mysteries are those involved in the finding of two corpses, one by small boys near Tomahawk Lake and the other near Ashland. Neither body has been identified. Both men were probably victims of stray bullets.

Thirty-three hunters were killed last season in Wisconsin and the Upper Peninsula. Forty-two were wounded.

In 1907 fifty-one were killed; and fifty-three killed in 1908.

LOOK OUT FOR YOUR $2 BILLS.

Christmas shoppers in the Chicago and middle western cities will do well to examine closely any two dollar bills they may receive in change. A new counterfeit two dollar silver certificate was discovered this morning, Chief Willis believes it is being widely circulated in Chicago and in it he recognizes the work of a counterfeit who has given the secret service much trouble. The note is not a good one on close examination, but would easily deceive any one not accustomed to counterfeits.

SMALL DEER LEFT IN WOODS

One Deer Law Condemned By Old Hunter as Cause of Slaughter. Reports say that most all the small deer have been left dead in the woods. The explanation for this condition would seem that the deer law was the cause for it; as one old hunter remarked: "This one deer law is all humbug; it is most natural for any hunter to shoot at the first deer that comes along; if he lands him and it happens to be a small one he'll say, well you will do —If I don't get a bigger one, and you bet nine chances out of ten he lands a bigger one and the little fellow is left behind. What's the remedy? Out the season down to ten days and allow no hunters in the woods earlier than one day before the hunting season opens up. Better still, give the deer a five year rest.—Forest Advance.

CHRISTMAS SEAL IS WATCHWORD

Anti-Tuberculosis Association Will Double Last Year's Sales This Year

"Seal the doom of consumption by sealing every letter, package, gift and other mail with a Christmas seal." This is the watchword of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association's army of crusaders who are out to double the record for Christmas Seal sales of last year, when 2,500,000 were disposed of at a penny each.

The penny derived from each seal, multiplied by thousands will yield a great sum for the maintenance of a great work—to wipe consumption out of Wisconsin. Each seal sold will make three persons happy—the one sending it, the one receiving it, and the unknown sufferer whom it will help. Every seal sold means another weapon placed in the hands of those battling against the white plague.

The war against consumption is everybody's war and everybody should take part. To buy Christmas seals is doing a duty. Every seal sold in this city increases our chance to win one of the many valuable prizes offered by the association as a reward for merit. These prizes include a $350 Henning piano; eleven $50 sanitary drinking fountains, one to the winning city in each congressional district; three lecture courses; a tuberculosis exhibit; special individual prizes, a special prize worth $100 for Catholic parochial schools and many others.

This prize list should be sufficient incentive to double last year's sale of 2,500,000 seals. However, the biggest prize at stake, the health and happiness of thousands of sufferers and the hundreds of thousands who have not yet felt the attack of the dread scourge, should again make this year's sale of Christmas seals the largest in the United States. Wisconsin has a reputation to maintain and must not let failure impair the efficiency of a great movement.

WISCONSIN BEST SAYS CAMPBELL

Commissioner of Immigration
Talks to the Point On Western Apple Lands

On several occasions I have called attention to the inevitable demoralization of the western apple projects. Some have said I was a pessimist, others that I was meddling with extraneous matters. To the latter criticism I have only to say that I am paid for doing certain things, among them conservation of Wisconsin capital which has been going into these projects by hundreds of thousands of dollars, and as to being a pessimist, let us look into the present situation.

The Commercial West of Minneapolis is a reliable conservative journal with an inclination to boost for the far west. In its issue of November 5th, it prints from Tacoma Washington: "The apple market is inactive, weak and in the buyers' favor, says the circular of the Northwestern Fruit Exchange, a grower or organization formed for the purpose of marketing the output of its members, and adds: "Shipments from all over the Northwest are very heavy and a great deal of fruit is shipped by concerns having no facilities for wide distribution, which concentrates the offerings in a few of the largest markets and causes a generally weak tone to prevail."

Maybe the above isn't pessimistic. Perhaps Wisconsin people (especially widows and working girls) who have invested in western apple schemes will think so.

If not, let us quote further: "We are avoiding these markets (the big ones) as far as possible and are pounding the trade all over the country with special reference to the small and medium sized markets, and there seems to be plenty of fruit to go around, and satisfactory orders, or offers are hard to draw."

In the light of the above, has anything I have said in the past been pessimistic? Big markets abandoned—the European market, about which we have heard so much, a back number—eastern buyers no longer "coaxing for the output," and "we are pounding the trade all over the country" with satisfactory orders or offers "hard to draw."

What will people who have been pouring their savings into these projects say to the last above paragraph? They have been told that buyers from the east and England and Germany, Australia and everywhere else were in a wild scramble coaxing for the far western apples at any old price—now, the authentic statement is: "We are pounding the trade all over the country," avoiding the large markets and Europe and Australia, and that "satisfactory orders or offers are hard to draw."

The article says: "Jonathan continues to be a 'Jonah', and that they are simply 'not wanted'. That, 'Spitzenbergs continue to be hard to move', etc. So much for the point of production, what about the point of consumption? The Packer, the great fruit trade paper, issue of November 12th, 1910, of the New York market for western box apples, says: "Sixty-five per cent of the receipts are ordinary stock bringing $1.25 to $1.75." Deduct from the above a commission, 50 cents freight, 30 cents packing costs, cold storage charges demurrage, often times deterioration from heating in transit, and what is left of the wonderful returns promised the grower and upon which promise widows and wage girls are induced to part with their money?

Many car loads—usually shipments "over-ripe" from heating in transit—have sold in the eastern markets at 75 cents to 90 cents per box. But the worst is yet to come, for the production is only a fraction of what it will be.

I am not a pessimist on apple growing—there is a fine future for the industry—provided (and always provided) they are grown close to the final market—in other words, in a state located, like Wisconsin. But "carrying coal to Newcastle" never paid and never will.

Moral: Invest in Wisconsin.
A. D. CAMPBELL,
Commissioner of Immigration,
Madison, Wis., December 3, 1910.

These attacks started with a pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing. MIGHTY RULERS OF EARTH

Elizabeth of England and Theodore of Abyssinia Had Many Traits in Common.

Elizabeth, queen of England, had many claims to great distinction. Her very name was Tudor, a contraction, it seems, of Theodore, "the gift of God," an epithet of happy omen associated with the mighty rulers of the earth, among whom may be mentioned the African king, Theodore of Abyssinia. This monarch is described in the Encyclopaedia Britannica as a "man of education and intelligence, superior to those among whom he lived, with natural talents for governing and gaining the esteem of others. He had a noble bearing, and a frame capable of enduring any amount of fatigue, and he was the best shot and the best horseman in Abyssinia. He was generous to excess and free from cupidity, but subject to violent bursts of anger."

Elizabeth also possessed many of these royal traits of character, although Coke said her name was not really Tudor but rather Owen or Meredith, though "God would not suffer her to have a girl name because by his grace and goodness she should deserve for her imperial virtues to be called Elizabeth the great." "She was," said Coke, "the phoenix of her sex; she was Angliae Amor," familiar with French, Italian and Spanish and learned in Latin and Greek; and "as the rose is the queen of flowers . . . she was the queen of queens. You cannot question what rose I mean; for take the red or the white, she was not only by royal descent and inherent birthright, but by roseal beauty also, heir to both."

Whether or not Elizabeth deserved this praise, and even if she had no right to bear the royal name of Theodore, she was fortunate enough to lend her own to the most glorious period of her country's history.—Yale Review.

Aged Hunter Saved by His Dog.

Ebenezer Ramsey, 72 years old, killed three bears near his home in Long Valley on the line between El Dorado and Placer counties a few days ago, but escaped possible death from one of them by the interference of his dog. Ramsey's dog treed a large bear and her two cubs, and Ramsey, with an ancient single shot rifle went to investigate. Seeing the bears, he shot all three, but the mother bear was not killed, and on falling to the ground she took after Ramsey before he could reload his rifle.

His dog, however, pounced upon the infuriated animal, and kept it busy until Ramsey secured an ax, with which he killed the brute. He says it was the most exciting hunt he ever had.—Placerville Correspondence San Francisco Chronicle.

Killing.

Paris, son of Priam, King of Troy, was among the very first lady-killers to be mentioned in literature. Yet he was no primitive bungler, at that. Indeed, such was his skill and finesse, that there became current in the polite circle of antiquity a saying which has endured to our own day: "See Paris and die!"—Puck.

A Thing to Be Thankful For.

One thing we have to be thankful for—that we didn't live when gentlemen were expected to wear tight boots on their feet and bear grease on their hair.

OWNERSHIP OF A LETTER

Missive Does Not Belong to Person to Whom It Is Sent Until Delivered.

Under the postal regulations and the rulings of the highest courts of the United States a letter does not belong to the person to whom it is sent until it is delivered to him. The writer has a right to reclaim and regain possession of it, provided he can prove to the satisfaction of the postmaster at the office from which it was sent that he was the writer of it. Even after the letter has arrived at the office which is its destination, and before it has been delivered to the person to whom it is addressed, it may be recalled by the writer by telegraph through the mailing office.

The regulations of the postoffice department of course require that the utmost care shall be taken by the postmaster at the office of mailing to ascertain that the person who desires to withdraw the letter is really the one who is entitled to do so, and the postmaster is responsible for his error if he delivers the letter to the impostor or an unauthorized person.

The vital principle in our political system lies at the bottom of this matter. In this country the state is the servant or agent of the citizen—not his master. It remains merely his agent throughout the transmission of a letter. The state may prescribe regulations under which its own servants may carry a message for the citizen, but it cannot shirk its responsibility to him.

SHE MEANT WHAT SHE SAID

Young Woman Was Determined Not to Have Her Rejected Suitor Hanging Around.

"So it's all over between us?" "Yes," she replied very firmly. "I told you so the last time you called. You must not annoy me any more by coming here."

"Have no fear," he returned; "you'll never see me again."

There was a half-concealed threat in his voice as he departed, but the girl heeded it not. She was happy in the thought that she had dismissed him forever.

Suddenly there was a strange sound outside. The girl ran to the window and looked out. Swaying in the still evening air was the form of her whilom lover. He had hanged himself with the hammock rope.

It was no time to either scream or faint. She ran to the drawer in the sideboard, and in a moment reappeared with a carving knife. With one stroke she cut him down. When he came to the girl was standing calmly over him. He looked into her eyes, but there was no sign of forgiveness in them.

"Begone!" she cried, with a wave of her hand. "I thought you understood me when I told you a moment ago that I didn't want you hanging around here any more."

Preserving Spiders' Webs. Naturalists employ an interesting method to preserve all kinds of spiders' webs. The webs are first sprayed with an atomizer with artists' shellac and then, should they be of the ordinary geometric form, they are pressed carefully against a glass plate, the supporting strands being at the same time severed.

After the shellac has dried the plates carrying the webs can be stored away in a cabinet.

Even dome shaped webs may be served in their original form by spraying them with shellac and then allowing them to dry before removal from their supports. Many spiders' webs are very beautiful, and all are characteristic of the species to which they belong, so that, from a scientific standpoint, their permanent preservation is very desirable.—Harper's Weekly.
